

Scope of Services

Calvary Seed e.U. is a private owned company that engages in the distribution and marketing of raw materials and seeds to various countries worldwide. All transactions are governed by these Terms, unless otherwise agreed upon in a signed contract.

1. Orders and Acceptance

- All orders are subject to availability and confirmation by Calvary Seed e.U.
- A quotation does not constitute a binding offer and may be withdrawn at any time before acceptance.
- Orders are confirmed only upon written acceptance or countersigned after issuance of a pro forma invoice.

2. Product Specifications

- Products are supplied according to the agreed specifications stated in the contract, invoice, or packing list.
- Certificates of analysis or origin will be provided upon request.
- We are not liable for variations in quality or appearance caused by local conditions during transport or storage.

3. Delivery Terms

- Shipping terms follow Incoterms 2020 unless otherwise agreed.
- Delivery timelines are estimates only and not legally binding.
- We are not responsible for delays caused by customs, shipping carriers, or force majeure events or other events which are unforeseeable at the time of the closure of contract.

4. Import/Export Compliance

- Buyers are responsible for ensuring compliance with local import laws and obtaining all necessary permits.
- The company complies with all applicable export control and sanctions regulations.
- No transactions will be conducted with restricted or blacklisted entities.

5. Warranties and Liability

- We warrant that goods conform to agreed specifications at the time of shipment.
- We do not guarantee suitability for a particular use unless explicitly stated in writing.
- Liability for defective goods is limited to the replacement or refund of the affected shipment.

6. Confidentiality

- Expect our discretion, having our partnership as top priority means a lot to us. Both parties agree to maintain the confidentiality of trade-related documents, pricing, and negotiations, except as required by law. Our business is anchored in the trust our partners have in us.

7. Amendments

- We reserve the right to update these Terms at any time. Any changes will be posted on our website and/or communicated directly.
